

Monday, 6 June 2022
Time	Topic	Speaker(s)
7:30 am	Welcome, Purpose of the Meeting, and Introductions	TBA
7:40 am	The Future of Systemic PrEP By the end of this presentation, meeting participants will be provided an update on a range of alternative PrEP products in development that promise less frequent dosing, multi-purpose uses and different modes of action.	TBA
8:10 am	Is it Remission or Cure? By the end of this presentation, meeting participants will be provided an overview HIV remission and the novel transplant method involving umbilical cord blood that appears to have cleared HIV from a third patient. This presentation will explore what this scientific finding means for the field of HIV science.	TBA
8:40 am	Questions and Answers
8:50 am	Adjourn	TBA

Tuesday, 7 June 2022
Time	Topic	Speaker(s)
7:30 am	Welcome, Purpose of the Meeting, and Introductions	TBA
7:40 am	Randomized Control Trials: The Ethical Implications of Placebo in HIV Prevention Research By the end of this presentation, meeting participants will be provided an overview of the ethical implications of conducting future randomized HIV prevention trials with a placebo control given the availability and approval of oral and injectable PrEP.	TBA
8:10 am	HIV in Adolescents: Turning the Tide Against HIV in Young People By the end of this presentation, meeting participants will be provided an overview of the impact of HIV upon youth in sub-Saharan Africa. The presentation will focus on epidemiological data and research strategies necessary to curb the HIV epidemic among young people.	TBA
8:40 am	Questions and Answers
8:50 am	Adjourn	TBA

Wednesday, 8 June 2022
Time	Topic	Speaker(s)
7:30 am	Welcome, Purpose of the Meeting, and Introductions	TBA
7:40 am	After the AMP Studies: Way Forward for Broadly Neutralizing Antibodies (bnAbs) By the end of this presentation, meeting participants will be provided an overview of bnAbs, the AMPS study	TBA

	results, forthcoming research combining bnAbs, and the potential impact of bnAbs upon the HIV prevention landscape.
8:10 am	Multipurpose Prevention Technologies: Revolutionizing the Health of People Assigned Female at Birth By the end of this presentation, meeting participants will be provided an update on MPTs in development and the potential impact of these technologies for the health of people identified female at birth.	TBA
8:40 am	Questions and Answers
8:50 am	Adjourn	TBA

DRAFT